La Premiere is a perfect corset. We guarantee it to be the best we know in our years of catering to the exclusive trade—when the prices are considered.

Not long since such corsets could only be obtained by special order at great expense.

Each pair is made entirely by hand. The materials are the highest grade of imported fabrics.

The boning is guaranteed not to rust, and is resilient to extreme pliability.

The models are fully a year ahead of other corsets in style, each showing the straight-line Parisian effect.

There are lengths and sizes to suit every figure.

The luxury-loving woman, whether short, tall, slender or stout, can be fitted in a La Premiere model that will beautify and perfect her figure, and lend correct style lines to the simplest or most elaborate gown worn over it.

"La Premiere" Corsets may be compared to "The Fasso," which costs nearly twice the prices. Allow the expert to show you both—take elevator to third floor.

Note that the sole agencies of these famous corsets—"La Premiere" and "The Fasso"—have been awarded the Greater Palais Royal.

From Department Chief.

The department chief will not arrive from New York until tomorrow morning.

Word comes: "You can advertise the best ever at $15. They are showing combination suits in New York, and I will include these at $15."

SUITS—Cases are on the sidewalk as this is written—Saturday evening.

Those already opened include Balkan and Cutaway Models with high waisted and draped skirts.

Bulgarian trimmings in evidence on some.

Materials are diagonal cloth, Bedford cord, serge and novelty materials; plain colors and shepherd checks.

It's the tailoring of these suits that make them appear—and $15 seems so little.
